1895.

PREFACE.

The following pages deseribe an unusually interesting array of numismatie properties, all of whieh will be sold for whatever Dealers and Colleetors ehoose to pay at sale. At the present advaneed season this simply means a grand opportunity for rare bargains.

Among the interesting features of the sale are Ancient Coins of Greeee and Rome, the remnant of the eolleetion offered in my 131st sale; a small but valuable eollection of Masonic Medals; three small eolleetions of Colonial and United States Coins eondensed into narrow eompass, rare and beautiful speeimens of the earliest Brunswick eoinage; eoins and silver medals of the Popes; silver medals of Napoleon I and other distinguished men or of historieal events, ete.

I take this opportunity to thank Colleetors for the steady, unvarying and growing support aeeorded to my sales. Continued dealings with many have established feelings of reeiproeal eonfidenee highly advantageous to both sides.

There may be philanthropists among coin dealers, men willing to give their time, knowledge, experienee, and responsibility gratis, just for the sake of seeuring bargains for others at sales, but while admiring this self devotion in others, I have been unable to eultivate it myself, and in the future as in the past I shall eontinue to charge a small but honestly earned eommission in exeeuting bids at all sales, whether eatalogued by me or others.

In eonneetion with this I beg to say that besides filling orders on all New York eoin sales, I shall continue to be present at all Philadelphia coin sales and will carefully execute all bids entrusted to me, espeeially at sueh sales of which no eatalogues are now placed in my hands for distribution.

A bon entendeur Salut!

ED. FROSSARD.
